

Physical Education

Game Sense Year 6

Unit Purpose

Pupils will consistently apply effective attacking and defensive skills and be able to apply these in a variety of game based scenarios.

Pupils will create and apply tactics in games, adapting them as the game situation changes, in order to beat the opposition.

Inspire Me

Did you know... up until 1870, rugby was played with a ball that was more spherical than oval and it had an inner-tube made of pig's bladder. This is also how American footballs got the nickname 'pigskins'.

Key Success Criteria

- P Pupils will apply a refined understanding of attacking skills to score points against another team, and defensive skills to regain possession.
- C Pupils will demonstrate resourcefulness and reflective skills as they create a range of attacking and defending tactics, applying these to their games.
- S Pupils will effectively apply their tactics, demonstrating a clear understanding of the role each team member will perform, ensuring each team member is motivated.
- W Pupils will constantly apply life skills such as self motivation and integrity by playing by the rules and leading others by example.

Vocabulary for Learning

Tactics: Tactics are a carefully planned set of actions that are used by a team or an individual to attain a certain goal.

Transition: is defined as the process of recognising and responding after losing or regaining possession.

Counter Attack: A counter attack is a tactic employed by the team gaining possession who immediately attack after regaining the ball from defending the opponent's attack.

Pressure: Pressure is the term used to immediately try to gain possession of the ball back. Rather than leaving the ball alone, teams or an individual can apply pressure in an attempt to regain possession.

Man-to-Man Marking: is a defensive tactic used where each player is assigned to defend and follow the movements of a particular player on the opposite team.

Tackle: Is a method of defending. The main objective of tackling is to dispossess an opponent of the ball. A missed timed tackle could result in a foul being awarded.

Referee/Umpire: is an official who enforces the rules and is responsible for making sure that the game is played fairly. The referee/umpire will resolve any disagreements and their decision is final and should be respected.
