

St. Benedict's March Recommended Reads

Reception

All the women in Noor's family wear headscarves and she's curious to find out why. Is a hijab worn to hide big ears or keep snacks safe?

Year 1 & 2

Sometimes we all need a bit of a positive boost, and this book of 50 poems packed with positivity and happiness is just the ticket.

Year 1 & 2

Wake up, it's mummy time! A warm and reassuring picture book about the everyday life of a stay-at-home mother and her two children over the course of a day.

Year 3 & 4

Migrating animals are found in all areas of the animal kingdom: birds, fish, reptiles, crustaceans, amphibians, mammals and insects. But why do they do it, and how does it work?

Year 3 & 4

Ramya must save her Hidden Folk friends in Edinburgh from the deadly Sirens – but she's been cruelly betrayed. A thrilling fantasy that celebrates difference.

Year 5 & 6

Could Tilbury Twitch-Whiskers really be the rat hero to return the legendary diamond and break its curse? A thrilling adventure with a classic feel, set in a richly drawn world of rats.

Year 5 & 6

Think you know about space? Think again! You might not have read about it in quite this way before...

