Lesson focus: Apostrophes for contractions Apostrophes for contractions Share why an apostrophe is used for a contraction. Display the full words from the resource. Add any that you know your child can not write correctly. Get your child to write down the contractions in a list. Ask your child to look through their own writing for examples of apostrophes for contraction. They should correct them if not used correctly.	Lesson focus: Strategies for learning words: words from statutory and personal spelling lists Statutory Word List Choose five words from the statutory list. Discuss their meanings and how your child might remember them. Add some words from personal lists. Use one of the strategies already taught (children should remember from previous lessons) to learn them: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Pyramid words• Identifying tricky part of the word• Trace, copy, replicate• Look, say, cover, write, check• Drawing around the word to show the shape• Drawing a mnemonic around a word Children should then learn the words.	Lesson focus: Words from the statutory and personal spelling lists Statutory Word List Test your child on the words. Practice the misspelt words using the different strategies.
